

Fellow members of OACRAO attended the SACRAO Conference in New Orleans on February 8-11th. The conference offered several good sessions again this year. The Tuesday night event was held at The National World War II Museum. Those who attended were Pamla Armstrong- East Central University, Zoe Durant- Cameron University, Rick Edgington- Northern Oklahoma College, Joe Evans- University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma, Barbara Gowdy- Oklahoma City Community College, John Horineck- Oklahoma City Community College, Bob Klaassen and Wife Betty- Southwestern Oklahoma State University, Natalie Schoemann- University of Oklahoma, Rick Skeel- University of Oklahoma, Amanda Sumner- Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences and Laurie Tinsley- University of Oklahoma. A good time was had by all. I encourage anyone who can to attend next year, the conference will be held in Chattanooga Tennessee.
